II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):
$249,000.00 The plaintiffs tendered two securities to the defendants for consideration for a home loan. The securities were a Note and a property Deed. The plaintiffs allege that the defendants did not use securities, Federal Reserve Notes, which were in their possession prior to receiving the Note and Deed and that the Federal Reserve Notes issued by the defendants have no redeemable value. Defendants also refused to accept Negotiable Instruments used for

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

Plaintiffs did submit on several occasions, Bills of Exchange, to discharge the alleged debt created by the defendants. Defendants dishonored all attempts at discharge using this specie of payment. Plaintiffs also allege that there are no assets which can be redeemed from the securities issued by the defendants. The Federal Reserve Notes are promissory notes and instruments of debt. Since 1933 nationally and 1971 internationally, they have been backed by nothing and cannot be redeemed for anything of value. They are simply a manifestation by a debt ridden government to enslave it's people. Defendants require proof that the defendants have something other than debt instruments to offer as consideration for the contract that they held in their own possession prior to

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Plaintiffs request the following relief:

1. Full discharge of the alleged loan claimed by the defendants.
2. Full release of interest and liens on the property used as security for the alleged loan.
3. Full refund of each individual extraneous payment made on the account using Federal Reserve Notes.
4. $50,000 in damages. Payable in gold or silver bullion.
5. Any additional and appropriate relief that the Court may consider just and equitable.
